Photoduplication Services

Photoduplication services are provided for a fee. All requests must be submitted in writing for consideration and include a Photoduplication Request Form. The Photoduplication Request Form outlines costs, procedures, and the Park's terms and conditions for reproduction and is required for processing all orders.

General Information

Restrictions on availability for duplication are based on physical conditions of the materials, copyright limitations, and legal restrictions imposed on particular collections.

Photoduplication services are provided for study purposes. Readers wishing to use reproductions from the collection for purposes other than personal research are advised that the National Park Service is not responsible for obtaining permission to publish copyrighted materials.

Payment Information

Payment must be made by check or money order drawn on a U.S. bank and made payable to the National Park Service. Payment must accompany the Photoduplication Request Form to begin processing.

Conditions of Order and Use

The copyright law governs the making of photoduplications or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for a purpose in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The applicant assumes all responsibility for use of the photoduplications.

The National Park Service can neither grant nor deny permission to copy or publish photographs and other reproductions from this institution's collection. The recipient must decide the propriety of any use of this material, and publication is at the recipient's discretion. Material that is copyrighted or otherwise restricted will not be furnished knowingly.

All photoduplications are prepared on order and may not be returned for credit.
